

I WILL LIVE FOREVER ON THE INTERNET

I WILL LIVE FOREVER, ON THE INTERNET investigates the tension between digital permanence and physical decay. This concept album aims to explore how internet culture shapes identity, sexuality, memory, and self-performance. Featured track, Lie, dives into online obsession and digital intimacy — limerence, comparison, and the desire to be consumed as someone else. B-side, Pretty Place, drifts through the dissociative allure of the internet, where pain is aestheticized and escapism becomes identity. Together, the songs ask what it means to haunt the internet: forever archived, forever performing.

MUSIC

Debuting original sound creation and instrumentation, both tracks, Pretty Place and Lie, explore dissociation, online obsession, and phantom intimacy, echoing the surreal logic of digital longing.

VIDEO

Shot in two days in the UCLA DMA shootroom & on-location in Chatsworth, CA, the narrative follows three metaphorical characters, the self, the digital self, and the spirit.

CODE

An interactive audiovisualizer built in p5.js responds in real-time to audio wave analysis. The visual output serves as a meditation on the infinite and the digital; code as an archival soul, alive and looping for eternity.

PROCESS

Developed over the course of three months, the project began with intensive songwriting and session work, followed by conceptual branding and narrative direction. Collaboration played a pivotal role, bringing together creatives across visual and audio production to shape the work's multi-sensory form.

Pretty Place TRACK ONE

DREAMS, TRAPPED INSIDE MY HEAD,
I KNOW THE GRASS
AIN'T ALWAYS GREEN,
BUT I'M HOPING
WE CAN BOTH JUST PRETEND

C'MON, C'MON, C'MON
GET OUT, GET OUT, GET OUT

IN A PRETTY PLACE,
IN A PRETTY PLACE

IT'S JUST A DREAM,
OH, I DREAM SO EASILY
SO MUCH HARDER TO WAKE UP
OH, I KNOW
WHEN REALITY COMES

GET OUT MY HEAD,
I'M IMPLODING
I DON'T EVER LEAVE
MY BED

I NEED YOU TO STAY,
I'M EXHAUSTED
PLAGUED BY THE DREAMS WE SHARE

IT NEVER GOES AWAY

"i'm always aware and perpetually obsessed with my internet persona, forever haunted by my digital footprint. In a world where our data is worth more than our art, what does it mean to be permanent? Cached in time. Not remembered, just stored ."

Lie TRACK TWO

BREATHE, MY AIR

YOU'RE A LIE, I SWEAR

BREATHE, ME DEEP
BE MY OCEAN
I LOVE HOW YOU HOLD ME
UNDER THE WATER
I NEED YOUR DEVOTION

JUST, BREATHE
